

The Cyborg Defamation Cause

Fredrick Defamont heads this organization, though it's more of a disorganized mob than the fierce mafia facade they put up...

They're composed of anyone who wants to join, provided they have a prejudice against cyborgs and aren't one themselves.

Wessex has provided me with limited information on them, but they prefer to remain in the shadows. It makes their work easier, after all.

Not being known gives you a huge advantage.
