

The Valkyrie Order

The Valkyries have always been a proud race, mythically revered for centuries due to their strength and prowess in battle.

Their most elite fighters are known as the Valkyrie Order, and members of it carry a lofty title - “Valkyrie Protector”. Those who bear this title are known to be ruthless in battle, with skills almost surpassing those of the war god.

They are one of the oldest all-female warrior sects in existence, along with the Amazons and ancient guard order of the Aurorian Queen.

No one is quite sure why all Valkyries born are women, or if it's a knowledge so old it's been lost to time

Valkyries have guarded over the Aether Realm for millennia, and occasionally venture down to the mortal realm for reasons known only to them.
